

1. Which of the following is a contribution that likely does not merit authorship?

Interpreting research findings

Providing lab space or tools

Writing the first draft

Designing a study

2. Which of the following terms refers to the author who is responsible for communicating between the publisher of a project and project collaborators?

Lead author

Principal Investigator

Publishing author

Corresponding author

3. To be named an author, individuals must...

Come up with the project idea

Secure funding for the project

Be involved in data analysis

Give final approval of the paper to be published

4. The principal investigator of a project and the lead author of a project can be different people.

True

False

5. Most definitions of authorship require that individuals fulfill which two components (check two):

Substantial contribution

Perform technical analyses

Accountability for the work

Be involved in the initial formation of the project