

1. Groups that are likely to be most affected by poor authorship practices include:

Graduate students

Department chairs

Senior faculty

Majority groups

2. Good authorship policies include which of the following?

General principles and guidelines to help teams make authorship decisions.

Guidelines for all possible authorship decisions

A single set of authorship standards

A final answer as to what constitutes a “substantial contribution”

3. Which of the following points do good authorship policies make?

In student work, the expectation is that the student will be the first author.

Authorship decisions should never change over the course of a project.

Gift authorship is acceptable.

There is one correct way to assign authorship.

4. Authorship decisions can be difficult even within health collaborations and relationships.

True

False

5. The Authorship Project’s Authorship Agreement form includes how many sections?

8

3

5

10